Rochester's Straw Hat Rained Out

Councilman Alfred R. Rochester, who vowed recently to wear his natty fine-weave Panama to the last possible day, yesterday admitted defeat. He appeared at his City Council office in a light-gray snap-brim felt.

"I'm licked," he said. "Summer is finally over degrees it."

is finally over, doggone it."

The day's shower convinced Rochester he'd have to put his straw hat away until 1949.

Chicago Daily News Foreign Service TOKYO.—United States and Brit-ish war vessels in the waters of the Far East outrank the Soviet fleet, Vice Adm. Russell S. Berkey, commander of Naval Forces Far East, said here. He indicated, however, that the United States is not planning to develop former Japanes Naval installations into permanen

U. S. bases.

"The Russians have a few destroyers and cruisers in Vladivostok," the admiral said, "but their surface ships are old. The submarines they have are swimming around." He added that "the Soviets have several bases other than viets have several bases other than that in Southern Siberia," but he did not amplify his statement.
